

Anthony LoCicero Participates in Podcast on the New York Intellectual Property Law Association (NYIPLA)'s Legislative Action Committee

The New York Intellectual Property Law Association

As the co-chair of the New York Intellectual Property Law Association (NYIPLA)'s Legislative Action Committee, Managing Partner Anthony LoCicero participated in a NYIPLA podcast providing an overview of the LAC, its mission and its current activities (such as outreach to the Congress, drafting of white papers, analyzing and assessing the potential impact and consequences – both intended and unintended – of pending legislation, etc.).

Tony is a former president of the NYIPLA.

Listen to the podcast.