

Amster Rothstein & Ebenstein Expands Trademark and Patent Practices with Addition of Two Lawyers

Author(s):

January 9, 2020 (New York) – Amster Rothstein & Ebenstein, a full-service intellectual property law firm has expanded its trademark and patent practices with the addition of two lawyers, continuing its strategic growth.

The lawyers who have joined the firm are:

- Charles LaPolla (Partner) specializes in the areas of trademark law including domestic and foreign prosecution, opposition and cancellation proceedings, Internet and domain name disputes, trademark litigation and other intellectual property litigation. Charles also has significant experience in copyrights, unfair competition, trade secrets and deceptive trade practices. His clients range from those in the fields of entertainment, including amusement and theme parks, to fashion, jewelry and cosmetics. He is a frequent lecturer at conferences and seminars.
- Albert Boardman (Associate) is an intellectual property lawyer focusing on patent prosecution, preparation and litigation in the high-tech sector, particularly in the areas of computer software and consumer electronics. He is a registered patent attorney and has prepared and prosecuted patents in the fields of cloud computing, computer virtualization, computer graphics and electronic devices.

“We are excited to begin 2020 by welcoming these highly experienced lawyers to our firm who will add depth and breadth to our existing trademark and patent practices,” said Managing Partner Anthony Lo Cicero.

About Amster, Rothstein & Ebenstein LLP

Since 1953, Amster, Rothstein & Ebenstein LLP has focused exclusively on representing clients in all facets of intellectual property law both domestically and internationally. The firm partners with clients to protect and maximize their intellectual property in a broad spectrum of industries such as financial services, fashion and retail, life sciences, medical devices, toys, entertainment, housewares, consumer electronics as well as blockchain and artificial intelligence. Our lawyers handle all facets of intellectual property law including: Patents, Trademarks, Copyrights and other related intellectual property law areas. Learn more about us at <https://www.arelaw.com/>.