

ARE Announcement: NYIPLA Names Partners Anthony LoCicero and Charley Macedo and Associate David Goldberg to Continue in Their Leadership Roles for 2020-2021

Author(s): Anthony F. Lo Cicero, Charles R. Macedo, David Goldberg,

At its Annual Meeting on May 12, 2020, the New York Intellectual Property Law Association (“NYIPLA”) asked three Amster, Rothstein & Ebenstein attorneys to continue their leadership roles for the next year.

Managing Partner Anthony F. Lo Cicero will continue to Co-Chair the Legislative Action Committee, which develops and coordinates the Association’s response to proposed federal and state legislation and rules.

Partner Charles R. Macedo will continue to Co-Chair the PTAB Committee, which provides thought leadership with respect to rules and litigation proceedings before the US Patent & Trademark Office’s Patent Trial and Appeals Board. Finally, trademark associate David P. Goldberg will continue to Co-Chair the Amicus Briefs Committee, which represents the interests of the Association’s constituency by preparing and filing amicus briefs in the courts.

The firm is proud to support the NYIPLA, which is one of the most active local intellectual property bar associations in the country and has a 98-year history of ably advocating the interests of the New York area’s diverse intellectual property community.

* Anthony F. Lo Cicero and Charles R. Macedo are partners and David P. Goldberg is an associate at Amster, Rothstein & Ebenstein LLP. Their practice specializes in all aspects of Intellectual Property Law, including copyrights, trademarks and patents. They can be reached at alocicero@arelaw.com, cmacedo@arelaw.com and dgoldberg@arelaw.com.