

In The Press:

Law360 Reports on NYIPLA Amicus Brief Submitted to SCOTUS By Firm Regarding USPTO's Controversial Policy of Seeking Attorney Fees

Law360 Reports on NYIPLA Amicus Brief Submitted to SCOTUS By Firm Regarding USPTO's Controversial Policy of Seeking Attorney Fees.

(June 26, 2019, Law360) Law 360 Reported on amicus brief filing on behalf of NYIPLA by Partner Charles R. Macedo (as counsel of record and Co-Chair of the NYIPLA PTAB Committee) and Associate David Goldberg (as Co-Chair of the NYIPLA Amicus Briefs Committee) in Peter v. Nantkwest Inc.

“Allowing the [USPTO]’s interpretation ... to stand would penalize parties for merely commencing a lawsuit to such a degree that many parties of limited means simply could not have their statutorily granted day in court,” said Charles Macedo of Amster Rothstein & Ebenstein LLP, co-chair of the NYIPLA's PTAB committee.

For the full article, please click here.