

In The Press: Law360 Reports on Amicus Brief Filed By Partner Charles R. Macedo on Behalf of Askeladden LLC for POP Panel at PTAB

Law360 reports on amicus brief filed by Partner Charles R. Macedo on behalf of Askeladden LLC for Precedential Opinion Panel of the Patent Trial and Appeal Board in Hunting Titan, Inc. v. DynaEnergetics GmbH & Co. KG. (IPR2018-00600):

Askeladden LLC, a company in the business of challenging patents, noted in its brief that the decision otherwise calls on petitioners to perform as patent examiners, even though they have “varying amounts of incentive, resources, or sophistication.”

While Askeladden and HTIA said that parties need to be able to respond to the grounds raised by the board under the APA, amici Google, eBay, HP and IAC disagreed.

Askeladden is represented by Charles R. Macedo of Amster, Rothstein & Ebenstein LLP.

Dani Kass, Give PTAB Leeway In Rejecting Amendments, Top Panel Told

<https://www.law360.com/articles/1230517/give-ptab-leeway-in-rejecting-amendments-top-panel-told?copied=1> (subscription required).

Askeladden's Amicus Brief is available here.